Payment notes

How does the Prémiový dluhový cenný papír 3.3% EURO STOXX 50® Deep Barrier 7 work?

- The return of the nominal value of the Premium Bond at its maturity date is based on the market rate trend of the main European EURO STOXX 50® stock index.
- The initial value (see Note) of the EURO STOXX 50® index shall be fixed on 9 November 2018.
- The daily closing price of the EURO STOXX 50® index in relation to the barrier shall be observed daily from 12 November 2018 to 9 November 2023 (Observation Period).
- The yield of 3.3% p.a. of the nominal value of the Premium Bond is being paid out annually and is paid always which means regardless of the trend of the underlying asset of the EURO STOXX 50® stock index.
- The barrier level is set at 45% of the fixed initial value (see Note) of the EURO STOXX 50® index, touching the barrier is not considered breaking it.
- The distance of 55% between the initial value and low set barrier creates a "safety cushion" for a possible fall of the EURO STOXX 50® index.
- If during Observation Period the value of the EURO STOXX 50® index (daily closing price) does not fall below the barrier of 45% of its initial value (see Note), the nominal value of the Premium Bond shall be paid out at the maturity date.
- If during the Observation Period the value of the EURO STOXX 50® index (daily closing price) falls below the barrier of 45% of its initial value (see Note) and at the last date of the Observation Period it will not return above 100% of its initial value, the nominal value of the Premium Bond reduced by the total percentage loss of the EURO STOXX 50® stock index from the date of setting the initial value (9 November 2018) until the last observation date (9 November 2023) shall be paid out at the maturity date).
- If during the Observation Period the value of the EURO STOXX 50® index (daily closing price) falls below the barrier of 45% of its initial value (see Note) but at the last date of the Observation Period shall be above its initial value, 100% of the nominal value of the Premium Bond shall be paid out at the maturity date.
