Performance goal and investment strategy

The fund's performance objective is to more significantly outperform Czech government bond yields in the long term by a combination of investments in bonds, direct investments in equities, and marginally also in real estate and alternative financial instruments It can flexibly respond to market development and regulate the ratio of the portfolio's conservative and dynamic component in favour of a possible yield. It very effectively optimises the ratio between the fund's yield potential and value volatility. The portfolio's conservative part adds to the fund's stability and consists of conservative bonds and money market instruments. Their share can make up the majority of the portfolio by as much 90%, but a minimum of 50% during periods of market fluctuations. The share of the dynamic component is thus significantly reduced. The portfolio's dynamic component consists mainly of direct investments in equities which have a minimum representation of 10% in the portfolio. These are supplemented by real estate and alternative financial instruments. In the period of the growth of dynamic assets, the fund's flexible investment strategy makes it possible to increase this share of the component. Thus the share of dynamic assets can account for as much as 50% of the portfolio.
